Do You Know?

A Medical Sufficiency Letter is required to have your child declared an Incapacitated Adult

A Medical Sufficiency letter is a formal statement written by the Medical Treatment Facility (MTF) or by a civilian Primary Care Physician with an endorsement with the MTF. A Medical Sufficiency Statement should include:

- The individuals identifying information – age, date of birth, full name
- Diagnosis
- Summary of patients condition
- Level of incapacitation. Include if permanent or temporary. Provide time period of incapacitation if temporary.
- Onset of disability; if not at birth, then age the condition was diagnosed.
- Statement pertaining to individuals ability to self-support
- Any other statement or information deemed necessary

Other Considerations

- The Medical Sufficiency Statement is a required document that will accompany your Dependency Application.
- The signature must be within 90 days of submitting your Dependency Application.
- Remember to allow enough time for the Primary Care Manager (PCM) or civilian provider to dictate and complete the letter. MTF’s can take up to 3 weeks.
- Review your Medical Sufficiency Statement to ensure that it contains all of the information needed and that it clearly portrays your child’s need. Make sure any supporting documentation is included.
- Ensure that the letter has been properly signed and that the date is clear.
- The Medical Sufficiency Statement is essential in the application process for Dependency Determinations, ID cards and other benefit programs.
- Remember to keep the original.
