It’s not too late for you to join us this summer but slots are filling up fast.

Interested in learning new skills to improve life and supports for your child as well as other families in your area?

If so, consider participating in this FREE 3-day training. The “Parents as Collaborative Leaders” training can serve as a road map with trainers from PEATC as your guides. This experience will combine current literature, personal stories, networking with others and skill development activities to support and guide you in your role as a parent, volunteer, local board member or any of the roles you play.

By the end of the training you will have fine tuned your leadership skills to develop meaningful collaborative partnerships in your community by leading groups of parents in facilitated discussions around Special Education.

If you are interested in attending, please submit your application HERE:
