Networking Call

May 27, 2016

12pm-12:30pm

What are the benefits of joining the call?

Derek will provide men from diverse backgrounds with information, support, and an opportunity to dialogue. The topic will be "Overcoming Barriers." He will also share information about resources, upcoming trainings, and leadership development opportunities designed to help fathers be visible, valuable, and vocal members of their child's educational team. This invitation is extended to all fathers, grandfathers, and any male mentors of children or young adults.

To register for the call please sign up at the link below or contact Derek Flake directly:
