PEATC's Juvenile Justice Symposium

July 22-23, 2016 | Glen Allen, VA

Join PEATC in Glen Allen, VA for our 1st Juvenile Justice Symposium where we will be engaging The 7 P's (Principals, Police, Parents, Pastors, Proprietors, Partners, and Politicians) to effectively reverse the school to prison pipeline.

This symposium is designed to promote disability awareness, emphasize the rights of students with disabilities, and encourage policies and protocols that support capacity building in educational settings. Attendees of this workshop should leave with information on avoiding unnecessary over representation of students with disabilities in the juvenile justice system.

Principals, Police, Parents, Pastors, Proprietors, Partners, and Politicians interested in reversing the school to prison pipeline are invited to apply here:
