

2018 COURT INVOLVED YOUTH SYMPOSIUM

VDOE IN COLLABORATION WITH PEATC

Virginia Crossings Hotel & Conference Center

1000 VIRGINIA CENTER PKWY, GLEN ALLEN, VA 23059

AUGUST 27- 28, 2018

Join PEATC and VDOE in Richmond, VA for the 2018 Court Involved Youth Symposium where we will continue to engage community members around topics related to Juvenile Justice, promote disability awareness, emphasize the rights of students with disabilities, and encourage policies and protocols that support capacity building in educational settings.

Attendees could have various roles; school administrators, court involved youth staff members, parole officers, school resource officers, faith-based ministry leaders, family and any community member's with a vested interest in improving the life of court involved Virginia Youth are all invited to attend. Speaker's and agenda will be released once the information is available.

This event will begin with an evening networking reception on August 27 and the symposium will kick off August 28 with breakfast (lunch will also be included).

Spaces are limited!

Overnight accommodations may be requested during the application process.
