

Dear Friends of PEATC,

PEATC has been closely monitoring the quickly evolving news with regards to the coronavirus (COVID-19) and recognize the increased risk to persons with disabilities, which includes our staff and participants for our conferences and trainings. Therefore, we are developing contingency plans for our upcoming events through May 2020 and will be releasing more information soon.

In the meantime, PEATC staff continues to be available to assist parents over the phone and via email but all in-person PEATC trainings will be cancelled until further notice. We will continue to post updates on our listserv, website, and social media as new information becomes available.
